Finalist Entries - Best Kitchen Creation

1st Place

Sarah Earle – Birthday Cake

1st Place – has to go to this beautiful cake. Clearly a lot of time and effort gone into this, and if you have to celebrate your birthday in lockdown you should at least win a prize!

2nd Place

Nicola Teal – NJ's low carb, scrambled egg, spinach, avo and tomato relish breakfast wrap!

Nutritious and beautifully presented, really wanted to try a bite of this one!

3rd Place

Aaron Cassie – Beef Short Ribs

Look fantastically tender and not an easy cook, if I ate meat still would definitely give this a try

Finalist Entries - Most Delicious Kitchen Creation

1st Place

Amy Lear – Oreo Slice – Oreo crumb base, soft chocolate centre with Marshmallows & a cream cheese icing

This can't be anything other than 1st place though when my son said, without hesitation, "I want to eat that right now" and he has very discerning tastes. Yumm!

2nd Place

Sarah Earle – Fry Bread, and Fry Bread Donuts w Whitakers choc inside and cinnamon coating

Combining Whittakers chocolate with a donut – genius, and probably bias, but I love Fry bread so this just made me hungry

3rd Place

Marc Synman – Asparagus wrapped in bacon

You just can't go wrong when it includes bacon. Evenly cooked and great rounded dish

Finalist Entries - Most Creative Kitchen Creation

1st Place

Jo Heslewood – Chocolate Cake with Cream Cheese, choc icing and Caramel

Oozing with yumminess, this probably could have got in the other categories too. But we particularly loved the creative swirl

2nd Place

Pieter Van Vuuren – Birthday Cake

Lots of time has gone into this creation, can imagine the birthday girl would have been really chuffed to have this and love the two-tone sponge

3rd Place

Nikki Harper – Turkish Lamb & Chicken

Nikki submitted a whole meal, we loved it all, but selected the Turkish Lamb & Chicken in particular as a really beautiful mix.
